

115TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 2586

To require an independent assessment and report of subversive activities of the Russian Federation, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MAY 22, 2017

Mr. CARBAJAL introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs

A BILL

To require an independent assessment and report of subversive activities of the Russian Federation, and for other purposes.

1 *Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,*

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Reporting on Influence
5 and Subversion by the Kremlin Act” or “RISK Act”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress finds the following:

8 (1) In 1986, an interagency working group
9 issued a report assessing “active measures” by the 10 former Soviet Union against the United States.

1 (2) The working group concluded that “there is
2 a massive and highly organized effort by the Soviet
3 Union and its proxies to influence world opinion”.

4 (3) The working group further observed that 5 “this effort includes public diplomacy to enhance the 6 Soviet image abroad and . . . also includes a per-
7 sistent, widespread program of disinformation and
8 deception designed to discredit the U.S. image
9 abroad and disrupt U.S. policy objectives.”.

10 (4) Active measures by the Russian Federation
11 have shown no diminution since the last report
12 issued by the working group in 1987, including—

13 (A) to influence world opinion;

14 (B) to undercut democratic processes and
15 institutions in the United States and partner
16 nations;

17 (C) to challenge the international liberal
18 order; and

19 (D) to establish an unfettered sphere of in-
20 fluence.

21 (5) The Director of National Intelligence con-
22 cluded in light of the Russian Federation’s hacking
23 of the 2016 presidential election that “Russian ef-
24 forts to influence the 2016 U.S. presidential election
25 represent the most recent expression of Moscow’s

1 longstanding desire to undermine the U.S.-led liberal
2 democratic order.”.

3 (6) The Russian Federation is deploying an
4 array of military, cyber, intelligence, and economic
5 tactics to weaken United States democratic institu-
6 tions, divide Europe from the United States, divide
7 Europe from within, undermine organizations such 8 as the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and the 9 European Union, and coerce partners to cooperate
10 with Russia.

11 (7) Militarily, Russian President Vladimir Putin
12 ordered the forcible and illegal occupation of Crimea
13 in March 2014 and the invasion of Georgia in 2008.

14 (8) The Russian military, in which President
15 Putin has invested heavily, continues to engage in 16 acts of aggression and intimidation against United 17 States allies across Europe.

18 (9) The Russian Federation’s subversive activi-
19 ties undermine trust in democratic systems, giving
20 rise to political instability.

21 SEC. 3. ASSESSMENT OF SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITIES BY THE
22 RUSSIAN FEDERATION.
